

YEARS OF Mental Health Program for Marginalized Communities

IN Cooch Behar, Alipurduar, Jalpaiguri, and Darjeeling

Since 2018, Moitrisanjog Society has supported the mental health of marginalized communities in Cooch Behar, Alipurduar, Jalpaiguri, and Darjeeling through counseling and trained community workers. We provide emotional and psychological support for anxiety, depression, domestic violence, social exclusion, and substance use, fostering resilience and ensuring no one faces their struggles alone.

Child Education and Skill Development Program

At Moitrisanjog Society, every child deserves a chance to learn and grow. Our evening Gurukul-inspired program currently supports 36 children from marginalized backgrounds, providing education, cultural training, and skills in a safe, nurturing environment. We empower them with confidence, creativity, and hope, ensuring no child is left behind.

ART AS XPRESSION

ART AS RESISTANCE

At Moitrisanjog Society, we believe art is one of the most powerful ways to touch hearts and open minds. Through street theatre, films, and cultural performances, marginalized voices share their truths with courage and creativity. These expressions go beyond awareness—they build empathy, spark dialogue, and break down the walls of prejudice. By bringing stories of resilience and dignity into public spaces, we create connections that inspire change and move society toward acceptance, equality, and respect for all.
